

Madeira. Belongs to all

A vibrant night scene featuring a large crowd of people gathered on a paved area, watching a spectacular fireworks display. The fireworks are predominantly purple and pink, with some white and blue bursts. A tall street lamp is visible on the left side of the frame. The overall atmosphere is festive and celebratory.

Water Screen – Multimedia Show
Machico and Funchal

The multimedia show "Ecrã de Água" (Water Screen), comprises the projection of a video which includes colour, light and sound by making use of a translucent water screen with a minimum width of 50 metres. This show counts on two sessions, one in the city of Machico and the other in Funchal, with a total duration of approximately 20 minutes.

Pyromusical shows

The pyromusical shows brighten the summer nights with fireworks, harmoniously combined with music in the stunning bay of Funchal. These shows last approximately 20 minutes, surprising thousands of people who travel to the capital to observe a grandiose scenario of light and colour.

Known as the International Fireworks Contest, these shows present companies which compete for a trophy awarded by public vote, cast in tombolas placed in strategic locations in the city of Funchal, situated in the city's pier (on the day of the show), in the La Vie and Marina Shopping Centres, as well as in the Tourist Office in Avenida Arriaga.
